

Blair's Week-At-A-Glance (WAAG):

October 20-24, 2025

It is hard to believe that we are already in mid-October! The leaves on the trees are changing colours, and the weather is getting colder and wetter. Thank you for helping prepare your child with outdoor gear for the weather. We are looking forward to inviting families to Blair for your child's Learning Update/Parent Teacher Conference! Please expect a notice or email from your child's teacher asking you to sign up for a conference. We are looking forward to celebrating Halloween, Diwali, and the autumn harvest. Have a wonderful weekend! -Mr. Livingston

Significant Dates in our Community

Diwali: Oct 20 - Nov 5
Installation of Scriptures as Guru Granth: Oct 20

The Guru Granth Sahib is the central religious scripture of Sikhism, regarded by Sikhs as the living, eternal, and final Guru. Sikhs treat the holy book with the highest reverence, considering it the embodiment of the ten historical Gurus.

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is a five-day festival celebrated by millions of Hindus, Jains, and Sikhs around the world. It symbolizes the spiritual victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. The name comes from the Sanskrit word deepavali, meaning "row of lights".
